The following facts should help to educate the Uninformed Slaves of America (USA)?

7. Social Security Numbers are issued by the UN through the IMF. The Application for a Social Security Number is the SS5 form. The Department of the Treasury (IMF) issues the SS5 not the Social Security Administration. The new SS5 forms do not state who or what publishes them, the earlier SS5 forms state that they are Department of the Treasury forms. You can get a copy of the SS5 you filled out by sending form SSA-L996 to the SS Administration. (20 CFR chapter 111, subpart B 422.103 (b) (2) (2) Read the citations above)

Sweers 1 Dallas 43, Treaty of Commerce 8 Stat 116, The Society for Propagating the Gospel, &c. V. New Haven 8 Wheat 464, Treaty of Peace 8 Stat 80, IRS Publication 6209, Articles of Association October 20, 1774.)

The building of Germany's infrastructure in the 1930's, including the Railroads, was financed by the United States. That way those who call themselves "Kings," "Prime Ministers," and "Furor." etc could sit back and play a game of chess using real people. Think of all of the Americans, Germans etc. who gave their lives thinking they were defending their Countries, which didn't even exist. The millions of innocent people who died for nothing. Isn't it obvious why Switzerland is never involved in these fiascoes? That is where the "Bank of International Settlements" is located. Wars are manufactured to keep your eye off the ball. You have to have an enemy to keep the illusion of "Government" in place. (Get the Disks and see the Documents for yourself.)

40. Guess who owns the UN?

The disks have many more citations including Hundreds of Documents to verify the 40 statements above and numerous other facts. The Disks also include numerous Essays written by Stephen Ames and several other people that fully explain the 40 above-mentioned facts. The Disks will clear up any confusion and answer any questions that you may have. The citations listed above are only the tip of the iceberg. Also included on the Disks are several hundred legal definitions because without them it is next to impossible for the non-lawyer to understand many of the Documents. Simple words such as "person" "citizen" "people" "or" "nation" "crime" "charge" "right" "statute" "preferred" "prefer" "constitutor" "creditor" "debtor" "debit" "discharge" "payment" "law" "United States" etc, do not mean what most of us think because we were never taught the legal definitions of the proceeding words. The illusion is much larger than what is cited above. Please get the Disks and see for yourself. There is no use in asking an Attorney about any of the above because: "His first duty is to the courts...not to the client." U.S. v Franks D.C.N.J. 53F.2d 128. "Clients are also called "wards of the court" in regard to their relationship with their attorneys. "Spilker v. Hankin", 158 F.2d 35, 58U.S.App.D.C. 206. Wards of court. Infants and persons of unsound mind. Davis Committee v. Loney, 290 Ky. 644, 162 S.W.2d 189, 190. Did you get that? An Attorneys first duty is not to you and when you have an Attorney you are either considered insane or an infant.

Here is a small news article about Stephen Ames:

INTERNET NEWSLETTER WINS FCC FREE SPEECH FAX VICTORY. Agency had barred citizen fax transmissions to elected officials without prior express permission. A small Internet newsletter has secured reversal in an FCC policy restricting free speech for citizens using fax machines to contact elected officials. Responding to complaints by the Pennsylvania attorney general's office, the Federal Communications Commission had ordered an Alabama man to "cease the unauthorized transmission of fax messages unless and until you receive permission from the recipients...further violation will result in immediate punitive action, which may include monetary forfeiture." Following an investigation by Conservative Consensus that policy has been rescinded and an apology issued by the FCC to the man involved.

"Punitive action... monetary forfeiture..." Strong words from a federal government agency, especially when delivered on FCC letterhead via certified mail. The letter, dated July 11, 1997 came from John Santy, Public Affairs Agent with the FCC's Compliance and Information Bureau in Langhorne, Pennsylvania. When Conservative Consensus received a copy of the letter from the recipient, Mr. Stephen Ames, Jr., of Gadsden, Alabama, we decided to investigate.

Conservative Consensus was especially alarmed at the chilling effect on political speech, if citizens were required to obtain the permission of government officials prior to contacting them via facsimile to express their views. (We have already noticed a trend among some senators to block faxes from numbers they do not wish to hear from.) Courts have repeatedly ruled that political speech represents the most protected form of free speech, under the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. This appeared to us to be a direct assault against any type of political dissent. Pennsylvania Attorney General Mike Fisher's office refused to respond to inquiries from Conservative Consensus during our investigation. When we contacted the FCC, we were informed by Robin Search of the Compliance and Information Bureau, that "The specific wording that applies: 'No person may: ... (3) Use a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to send an unsolicited advertisement to a telephone facsimile machine.'" [FCC cited CFR Title 47, Part 64,1200a:3] We were troubled by the fact that Mr. Ames was not sending advertisements, but political speech. In fact, FCC regulations revealed the definition of "unsolicited advertisement" to be "any material advertising the commercial availability or quality of any property, goods, or services..." Yet the agency had attempted to adapt a ban on commercial solicitation to apply to political discourse. When Conservative Consensus pointed out to Ms. Search the troubling aspect of the FCC's misrepresentation of the law, our investigation was referred to Mr. Lawrence R. Clance, Assistant Bureau Chief, Law, at the Compliance and Information Bureau. Following an internal investigation by Mr. Clance, the FCC on September 3 wrote to Mr. Ames, rescinding the July 11 letter. The documents were made available to Conservative Consensus on Friday. The full text of both letters is available from inside the release posted on the Conservative Consensus website.

This investigation leaves a number of unanswered questions, which we still find deeply disturbing. First, how and why did Pennsylvania Attorney General Mike Fisher's office persuade the FCC office at Langhorne, Pennsylvania, to intimidate a citizen from speaking out politically? As the state's highest law enforcement officer, the attorney general is sworn to uphold the law --- not distort it to violate the civil rights of citizens. Second, why did the FCC deliberately distort the meaning of an existing regulation in an attempt to deny Mr. Ames his civil right of free speech? This appears to us to indicate the extreme politicization of a "neutral" regulatory agency. Third, why did the nation's major media outlets ignore a move by a powerful federal agency to extinguish political speech? Could it be that the nation's most powerful media no longer care to protect speech they disagree with? If so, then free speech and political dissent in America are indeed, both endangered species.

Finally, Conservative Consensus would like to extend thanks to FCC attorney Lawrence R. Clance for investigating this matter when it was brought to his attention, and upon determining the facts, acting to correct this most egregious action by a regulatory agency.
